

CPDA 2017 Summer Conference & Annual Meeting
Spouse & Guests Program Itinerary
(Sign up for this program through registration only - Closes July 3, 2017)

Monday, July 17
(Afternoon)

Spa Day at Urban Yoga Spa:

Release Relax & Refresh!

In the heart of downtown Seattle, in the city's energetic center, you will find a personal oasis. It's more than a spa, it's a lifestyle! UrbanYogaSpa is here, above all else, to inspire happy, healthy, and empower lives. They enhance the lives of modern day urban dwellers, and want them to leave as their best self.

Tuesday, July 18
(Morning)

Seattle City Pass:

The city of Seattle is always buzzing. Is it the "Starbucks" coffee perhaps? No, think of it as it's being the city's best attractions around. Experience the best the city has to offer. Seattle has hand-picked and packaged into an easy-to-use CityPASS ticket booklet - this booklet is valid for your stay in Seattle starting with the first day of use.

Your CityPASS Includes

- Space Needle
- Seattle Aquarium
- Museum of Pop Culture (MoPOP) OR Woodland Park Zoo
- Chihuly Garden and Glass OR Pacific Science Center

Wednesday, July 19
(Morning)

The Pike Place Market Food and Cultural Walking Tour:

Pike Place Market is an awesome community in the heart of Seattle's downtown area. The Pike Place Market Food and Cultural Walking Tour includes delicious tastings from (subject to change without notice): Fresh seasonal produce, Locally-roasted coffee, Cherry-inspired treats, Tom Douglas' crab cakes, Russian piroshky pastries, Artisan handmade cheeses, Nation's best clam chowder, Hot old-fashioned doughnuts, and other tasty surprises! The tour generally includes 9 or 10 tasting stops. The amount of food tasted on the tour is equivalent to a light lunch.